

Default Question Block

Please use the form below to apply to the BioEngineering Scholars Program (BioESP). Please use the same name under which you applied to admission to Berkeley.

Last name (surname or family name)

First name

I verify that I have applied and been accepted to the University of California, Berkeley, College of Engineering Bioengineering undergraduate (B.S.) major for Fall 2022.

Yes

No

Email address

(Please enter the address used on your UC Berkeley application for admission)

Optional: Your ethnicity (you may check more than one)

- African American
- Asian, Asian American (including South and Southeast Asian)
- Chicano / Latino
- Filipino
- Native American / Alaskan Native
- Pacific Islander
- White - European descent

Are you you aware if you are eligible for a Pell Grant?

- Yes, I am eligible
- No, I am not eligible
- Unsure

Have you taken any college or university courses? Please describe.

Your response is limited to roughly 100 words.

Have you participated in any internship, research or accelerated programs for future scientists? Your response is limited to roughly 150 words.

Why bioengineering? What do you hope to accomplish in your bioengineering career? Your response is limited to roughly 400 words.

Describe a significant challenge or barrier that you have encountered on your path to college. As a future leader in the field of bioengineering, how will you use your experience to make our field more inclusive? Your response is limited to roughly 400 words.

How might you contribute to the diversity of the field of bioengineering? What unique qualities would you bring to this year's cohort? This could be a perspective you can express, a special skill, a unique experience, etc. Your response is limited to roughly 400 words.

Powered by Qualtrics